World Autism Awareness Day falls on Thursday, April 2 in 2020!

Join us in making your school and community a more inclusive place for people on the autism spectrum!

Register, and have access to our Educator Toolkits which include activities and educational videos.

Share your school's stories of inclusion and acceptance.

Register Today!

Note: Even you have participated before, you still need to register. Please use the flag you received previously.