D. Delegations

1. Chad Nantais

Chad Nantais, Local Leader of Strong Towns Kingsville, appeared before the Committee and provided a high-level overview of the organization. He discussed some of the projects the organization is working on, including walkability audits throughout Kingsville's downtown core, and stated that he intends to bring the findings of these audits back to the Committee at a future meeting.

E. Items for Consideration

1. Kingsville Logo

Natalie Sharp, Deputy Clerk, informed the Committee that the Town is looking at creating a more "accessible" version of the Kingsville Logo. The goal is to modify the logo for better readability while staying aligned with the Town's established branding. The Committee was supportive of this initiative and provided feedback on three proposed design options. Natalie confirmed that public input will be gathered throughout the selection process.

2. Accessibility Fest-For-All Event

Natalie Sharp, Deputy Clerk, provided a detailed overview of the upcoming Fest-for-All event, including the location and setup of the Committee's booth, as well as a summary of the scheduled activities planned for the day.
